

Abstract 746

TITLE: Latino communities and HIV

AUTHOR: Rodriguez-Trias, H.

Denial of the impact of this HIV epidemic among many of the Latino population is giving way to acceptance and acknowledgement. Public health workers must be prepared to understand the stages of acceptance and to collaborate with community members. A community assets framework is necessary for developing culturally relevant interventions that are most likely to succeed.

PRESENTER CONTACT INFORMATION

Name: Helen Rodriguez-Trias, Co-Director

The Pacific Institute for Women's Health

Address: 2999 Overland Ave., Suite 111

Los Angeles, CA 90062

Telephone: (310) 842-6828

Fax: (310) 280-0600

E-mail: piwh@piwh.org